SUSAN BATTLEY, PSYD, PHD, is an internationally recognized authority on strategic leader and organization effectiveness. She is the founder and chief executive officer of Battley Performance Consulting based on Long Island, New York.

For more than 20 years, Battley has helped world-class leaders, boards and top management teams execute brilliantly for maximum success in today's high-stakes business environment.

Fast Focus on Success, Battley's radio program on leadership and career excellence, was commended for its innovation by the Clinton White House.

Battley has worked with board directors, chief executives and corporate officers, Nobel laureates, association executives and public sector officials here and abroad. Her diverse clientele includes the financial services, healthcare, high tech, apparel, professional services, publishing, manufacturing and higher education sectors.

Her book, Coached to Lead: How to Achieve Extraordinary Results with an Executive Coach (Wiley/Jossey-Bass), is the first executive's guide to executive coaching. Soundview Executive Book Summaries hails her as a "wise guide to greater effectiveness."

Battley is a sought-after expert on leadership and boardroom effectiveness, including leader behavior and succession planning. She has served as a nominator to CFO Magazine's Global 100 Leaders. Her articles have appeared in leading business and professional publications, including Leader to Leader, Leadership Excellence and Association Executive, as well as the Huffington Post and Forbes.com.

She holds doctoral degrees in psychology (PsyD) and economic history (PhD with distinction). She is a licensed psychologist in New York State.

Battley has served on numerous professional and non-profit boards, including the Institute for Management Consultants, New York. She is a founding fellow of the Institute of Coaching, as well as a member of the American Psychological Association, the National Association of Corporate Directors, the American College of Healthcare Executives, and the Society of Consulting Psychology. She serves on the Advisory Council of Harvard Business Review.

Prior to starting her firm in 1998, she was a consulting psychologist and clinical associate professor at Stony Brook University, State University of New York.
